

The 18th-century planters who settled the Carolinas built formal Georgian houses in the city of Charleston. But on their riverfront farms they built simple homes like our Lowcountry Cottage, raised on piers with Caribbean-style porches and tall windows.

Carolina Lowcountry Cottage rear front Bedroom 2 Summary 8'2"x8'9" Kitchen $796 \, \mathrm{sf}$ 2 bedrooms, 1 bath First floor: 398 sf Porch Porch Second floor: 398 sf Parlor Bedroom 1 Porches: 338 sf 14'9"X12'1" 11'1"X11'8"

second floor

first floor